Hash Trash (Run 1194) - Scribe—Barbara C.

VENUE: St. Thomas PO.

DATE: 17th June 2006

HARES: Francie “China Brush”, Damian “Dr. Dish”, Ricky “Man Boobs” and Christian.

Weaving and winding through the traffic around the St. Thomas Fair?, we received our usual share of stares and questions but not one offer of refreshment.

The “down downs” with Mark and his jury-Ted were the usual round of light-hearted ribaldry; except in my case of course which was obviously rigged!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

First “down-down” (Trollop-for never before staying and receiving a “down-down”), asked to set first run and first scribing of “Hash Trash” all in the same hash. Screaming and kicking in protest, I may yet become a true hasher.

At this point, the promise of hills truly came forth. Up one and down another, this eventually led us to a gully where a false trail with a rope put off many a front runner and challenged the “legs and breath” of many a hasher (especially me).

Many stayed on to partake of the drinks and the delightful fare of authentic doubles provided by Francie et al (a good thing as there seemed to be some trouble with the lighting of the B-B-Q!)

As usual a good time was had by all and for myself, I enjoy the hash experience more each week!!

“First down-down (Trollop-for never before staying and receiving a “down-down”...”

From an “ON” in the opposite direction to where we eventually ended up, Francie and offspring sent us on our own “Spirit of St. Thomas” tour.

With the beautiful Barbados sun not too far overhead (read this as very, very hot), we wended our way down to and back up from Harrison’s Cave to finally set eyes on the welcome “ON IN”. So overcome was one hasher that he had to stop at the next rum shop to celebrate before taking his final steps!

ON and ON and ON

With a “check” here and a “check” there, runners were everywhere.

Hash Trash (Run 1195) - Scribe— HM

Horse racing, World Cup Rugby, hashing...? It looked like a great day for hashers...not the greatest of locations for running but we were treated to a variety of events at one place.

I arrived at the Garrison at the same time as the hare—Jimmy “Jim Boots” and he was alone (sans “Tarzan”). He explained that Tarzan had become ill while setting so that he had to cut the run short. The Rugby match was well under way at that time and I started selling bar tickets to hashers. It was a day off for the hares as we used the Rugby Bar and for Dave “Fry De Ass”/Woodman as food was on sale.

There were many hashers in evidence, but few were dressed appropriately for running—strange, the reason for setting up the run at the Garrison was to allow hashers to view the match and then run!

We were given instructions by Jimmy and then we were off! It seemed as though Jimmy had forgotten the check template at home as the number of checks were sparse but we seemed to find our way around the “short” run. Walkers were pleased that they were given many opportunities to short cut and head back to home. The rest of the us persevered in the face of gruelling sun and heat to make our way back to the bar via Government Hill, the NIS area and Chelsea Road.

We won’t talk about the match. After punishing such miscreants as David H., Angela, DHASY, Ian “Putters”, and Louise; Bob “the Builder” was singled out as the Shite and we settled in for rounds of drinks and liming.

We bought out the Rugby Bar so that they could close and go celebrate (?) with the teams and called it a night well after 9pm.

Apologies to hashers that the hash water cooler was unavailable .

Horse racing,
World Cup Rugby, hashing....?
