

Down downs

June 26th

Hash Shit – as unusual as it is to have the shit up first thing, it was clearly called for. Having not been seen him after the first hour out, Roger Hart was observed having the last of several cold beers when the FRBs finally made it in after 2 hours in the fields.

Deliberate shortcutting – many, many persons were called up, but it was generally agreed that Francie had committed the most heinous crime of saying, as she crossed over an X, “what dey go do? Shoot me?”. The RA declared Sharia law in effect for this crime, and the other shortcutters stoned Francie with ice cubes whiled she was forced to down hers in one.

Negligence of duties by Hares – Having called the On On with the sun high in the sky, it was a first in a long time to be seeing it go down while looking for the On In! There was something for everyone on this hash, perhaps too much of everything! Horses, dogs, cows, sheep, chicken, butterflies; wild flowers; fancy and not so fancy houses; garbage heaps, manicured lawns and high grass fields. All agreed that despite the all-island tour that it was a hash to be remembered and June was roundly thanked for this and all the ‘June’ hashes, with a miniscule shot of Barbados’ best!

Aiding and abetting – all those hashers who had parked badly were invited to approach the RA, but only a few had the courage to own up...Nevertheless after much discussion it was agreed that the fault lay not with half a mind hashers but with the parking superintendent – Choo Choo Train George who gave confusing instructions and basically was ignored! By popular demand he was given the Down Down instead!

False Trail Award – this week’s award goes to Victor “The smiler” Henken who approaches just about everything with a smile, and did just about every false trail on the hash, followed always by the RA...

Birthday Celebration – Lynn Haynes – the RA took offers for age suggestions, and with various ages suggested (19, 21, 42, 29, 35) the hammer went down on the suggestion of 316 years although all agreed that she didn’t look it! Happy birthday Lynn and thanks for the cake!
